

Providing legal support to you at a fixed price

The break-up of any relationship is never easy. If you are thinking of getting a divorce it is important that you take the right legal advice and guidance, particularly if there are children involved.

Fixed Fee Legal Package

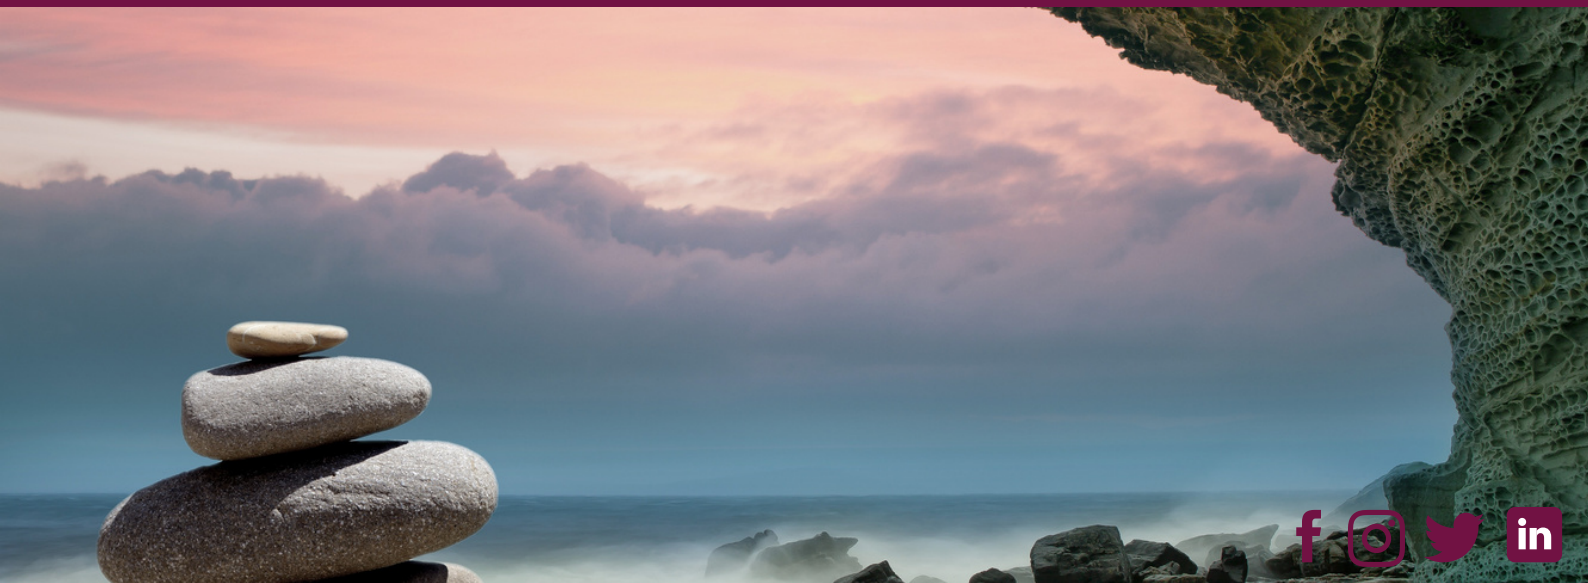

To help give you the support and clarity you need we offer fixed prices for the divorce work if straightforward cases. This fixed cost will provide you with certainty of the cost.

At Coles Miller, our family team all have many years of experience advising on legal and practical issues for divorce and understand that at times things can be emotionally charged. But we are here to help and support you.

Why choose a fixed fee package?

- One off fixed fee payment
- Certainty of cost
- Access to highly specialised family lawyers
- Tailored legal service specific to you

What will we do?	How much will it cost?	What else is covered?
Divorce Package for the person starting the divorce (Petitioner)	850 + VAT, plus court fees £628	We will deal with the whole divorce process provided it proceeds without defence or issues about services of the paper costs
Respondant in divorce (receiving divorce papers)	£400 + VAT	Completing the acknowledge of service and then passing on the rest of the papers from the court with advice

The fixed fee prices do not include work relating to the financial and children matters which are charged separately. If you want more information as to our costs in this regard please contact one of our family specialists to discuss further.

We are happy to discuss which elements of these prices may apply in your circumstances and provide assistance at any time with enquiries over options, timeframes and costs. We are also happy to explain in further detail what each aspect of the fixed price scheme will involve if you have any queries.

Coles Miller has an experienced team of family lawyers based at offices in Poole, Bournemouth, Christchurch, Broadstone and Wimborne and can provide advice and help with other aspects of family work.

Please note that we reserve the right to end fixed price package arrangements at any time should the case no longer meet the specifications for provision of the service.

For more information contact our family team at a branch offices located conveniently to you.